

The Purging of the Membership (25th Article)

The restructuring of the aims and policies of the lodge, influenced by Michael Scarth, continued at the General Lodge meeting held on 12th April 1792 when it was declared that only those listed and numbered were members of the lodge and no other whomsoever, having forfeited their rights by the 25th Article.

See below copies from the original pages 13, 14 and 18 of the Minute Book 1791 to 1794.
